ABOUT KANGAN INSTITUTE

Located in the heart of Melbourne's fashion precinct, the Centre for Fashion and Creative Industries is an exciting innovation hub focused on professional fashion training in Australia.

Our world-class faculty with extensive industry experience and connections cater to the needs of the ever-changing and highly competitive fashion industry.

The boutique campus attracts more than 800 local and international students as well as the industry elite for a range of apprenticeships, certificates, diplomas, advanced diplomas through to customised industry programs. We have partnered with leading Australian universities to provide our students with pathways in to higher education.

Students have access to the latest digital technologies in the purpose-built campus including runway facilities, the retail training centre, state-of-the-art textile and manufacturing hub and the brand new hair and beauty training salon.

OUR TEACHERS

The teachers at Kangan Institute have current industry experience, some still work in the industry and have invaluable connections with high profile Australian brands.

Our teachers are on the cutting edge of new developments within the fashion sphere with a focus on sustainable fashion design. Recently one of our teachers won the International Specialised Skills (ISS) Fellowship Award to pursue study and research in the sustainable fashion arena on a global level!

OUR STUDENTS

Our students have the opportunity to showcase their designs at the prestigious Melbourne Fashion Week in our own sustainable fashion runway that is in partnership with the Australian Red Cross, as well as the student designer runway at the Melbourne Town Hall. Our students have won awards and received recognition for their designs. Our recent graduates have gone to establish their own brands or work for some well known Australian brands including Jason Gresch, Craig Braybrook Couture, Dangerfield, Revival, Tiffany Treloar, Myer and Kmart.

JEMY KONDO

MALAYSIA, ADVANCED DIPLOMA OF APPLIED FASHION DESIGN AND MERCHANDISING

"Before I decided to travel to Australia, I tried to research the right fashion school and fashion is my passion and what I really wanted to do. I chose Kangan Institute because I think it's the best for me.

I really liked it because of the school environment and the teachers are very helpful.

JASON GRECH

FASHION DESIGNER

Jason Grech is a multiple award winning Melbourne couture brand synonymous with pure luxury, specialising in couture bridal and red carpet gowns of the very highest quality.

Over his stellar career, Jason has become one of Australia's most celebrated couture houses. He ignited his love affair with fashion back in 1997 when he began his training with Kangan Institute.

OUR INDUSTRY CONNECTIONS

We work with some of the best industry brands to give our students access to practical work placements, the latest industry tools and real skills. By partnering with industry, we ensure the training is relevant with industry requirements.

OUR COURSES

Unleash your creativity and be at the forefront of the fashion industry trends with our unique holistic approach to training, dedicated and experienced faculty of teachers, and supportive learning environment and gain access to the latest knowledge across all areas of fashion. Learn the dynamics of the fashion retail value chain and make industry connections to get the competitive edge you need to stand out from the crowd.

The course includes Computer Aided Design (CAD), Stylecad (Computer aided pattern making) and a free subscription to WGSN, a trend forecasting website.

The course offers students the choice of two study areas:

This course is designed to be both an entry level qualification in fashion design and its related skills as well as a qualification providing skills for employment as an advanced patternmaker and garment technician.

Skills involve the use of both manual and digital design tools, and may be applied at various stages of the supply chain.

Design outcomes build on technical production skills and provide a basis for career progression to design.

Students work through industry base collaborative projects that are designed to develop their skills set and market knowledge while enhancing future job prospects.

As part of this course students will be required to undertake work experience for two weeks.

A portfolio is not required to apply for this course.

TEXTILE & FASHION HUB

The Textile and Fashion Hub at Kangan Institute offers sampling & short run manufacturing services, industry relevant training courses for designers and small businesses as well as customised industry training for manufacturers, and a series of exciting short courses. Located in the heart of Cremorne, with state of the art facilities and the very latest in industry standard technology, the Textile and Fashion Hub is the missing link between the birth of a creative concept, and its final emergence as a finished product.

Our full-time industry experts are available to assist designers and businesses with their garment development and manufacturing requirements, with a series of options and packages for the knitting and printing of garments. With extensive industry experience and expertise, our consultants also work closely with the textile design and manufacturing industry to help create manufacturing efficiencies and compliance practices that will improve the bottom line.
