

THE KOORIE PROJECT HEALTH TRAINING PROGRAM

Are you an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander who wants a career in the Health Industry? If so, the Certificate III in Health Services Assistance (HLT33115) with an Assistant in Nursing Specialisation at Kangan Institute will provide you with the skills and knowledge to find employment in various health settings.

Career opportunities:

- Nursing assistant
- Health services assistant

Completion of this course will give you the real skills to find employment in the health, allied health, nursing and aged care industries.

Benefit from:

- Mumgu-Dhal leadership training, Cultural Awareness workshops and get TAFE ready sessions
- Ongoing mentoring through the program
- Career planning guidance
- Guaranteed work placement with opportunities for employment on completion

Information sessions:

Dates: 13th & 27th March 2018

Time: 10am – 1pm

Location: Indigenous Education Centre, Building W, Kangan Institute, Pearcedale Parade, Broadmeadows VIC 3047

Key dates and times:

Mumgu-Dhal training: 9th – 13th April 2018
from 9:30am – 3pm

Course start date: 16th April 2018

Course duration: 6 months

Class days and times: Mondays and Tuesdays
from 9:30am – 3pm

1300 976 977 | info.kangan.edu.au/thekoorieproject
k.clarke@kangan.edu.au